Extracts from CDS Boston Centre’s reports from “The Country Dancer in Wartime” on its participation in the early days of the New England Folk Festival.

No 4, November 1944
A Folk Festival of folk dance, music and crafts, inspired by the Governor’s Committee on Recreation was held on October 28 and 29 at the YWCA in Boston. A local committee, including representatives from the Boston Centre, was responsible for the plans and execution of the Festival program.

Changes included exhibits and demonstrations of folk crafts, folk singers, and fiddlers from New England states, dance groups of various nations, and also a leaders’ conference on folk music and dance. The program was held on Saturday and Sunday afternoons and evenings, finishing each evening with general American dancing for everyone from 10 to 12 o’clock. Our Center gave a demonstration on Saturday evening of men’s Morris and Sword, and on Sunday afternoon a program of country dances. This proved to be a most interesting festival, and it is hoped that it may become an annual event. Louise B. Chapin.

No. 7 November 1945
The second Folk Festival of folk dance, music, and crafts was held at the Y.W.C.A Building on October 17th and 28th. Again our society was one of the sponsoring organizations and also gave a demonstration on the Saturday evening program. This Festival was a great improvement upon the one of last year and it seems to warrant becoming an annual event. Louise B. Chapin

No. 10 February 1947
The Society has appeared before the public in two demonstrations. The first at the annual New England Folk Festival of dancing, music, and crafts in November, when a group of English Country dancers was danced, and eight men clashed through the Flamborough Sword Dance before an appreciative audience. The next month at the Christmas party of the Harvard Folk Dance Society, directed by E. Eddie Nadel, the Society presented the same sword dance, a men’s Morris, and some English Country dances. Louise B. Chapin
We have learned that the owners of the Mt. Auburn VFW in Cambridge, MA, site of the Thursday contra dance sponsored by NEFFA, are in negotiations to sell the building to the City of Cambridge. The plans call for renovation of the upper floor into a neighborhood “youth center”. Unfortunately, a dance hall is not part of the renovation plans.

The timing for this is likely to be no earlier than the summer of 2005, but if this deal goes through, we need to find a new home for our dance. The Thursday Night Dance Committee will be meeting to determine our course of action. We will be asking for help to find potential relocation sites. To that end, think about halls that you might have seen or have a connection to that could be appropriate for our dance. Consider capacity (300 dancers), parking, convenience to public transit, etc. Thanks! — Dan Pearl, Chair TNDC

The Setting – Beautiful Grasshopper Lake Camp is perfectly situated just off I-77 (Exit 23, “Superfund Site”), which provides the illusion of seclusion and country living. The spring-fed Grasshopper Lake provides a bracing dip for hearty souls, as well as a fertile breeding-ground for the fascinating Snakehead (nature lovers, take note!). The picturesque East Branch of the North Fork of the Scum River runs through camp, providing not only soothing babbling, but a natural barrier to the feral dog packs roaming on the other side.

The Staff – Once again, our headline band will be the Oxi-Morons with Skip “Skipper” Tomo (fiddle), Sam “Skippy” Firbus (accordion), and Jennifer “Jennifer” Skipman (drum kit, bowed psaltery and highland bagpipe). They will be selling copies of their new CD: “A Fiddle, An Accordion, A Drum Kit, A Bowed Psaltery and A Highland Bagpipe”.

Calling the contras and squares will be the fabulous Del Filament. Del, hailing from Gingivitis, NC, is beloved for his little ‘act’ where he ‘loses patience’ with the dancers, ‘berating and screaming’ at them, even though he is the one who did the ‘pathetic’ job ‘teaching’ the dance. Oh, how we ‘love’ that! Del is also renowned for his dances he has composed to commemorate important events in his life, including the popular “My First Car,” “Graduation Contra,” and “Take Your %@ $# Toothbrush and Get Out of My Life You Bastard Hornpipe”.

The Program – We’ll have a bevy of attractive classes, including “Offensive Contra Dancing,” “Advanced No-Walk-Through Poorly-Called Contras,” “My Two Left Feet – Couple Dancing for Beginners,” and “Safety in Numbers: Dance Band Workshop.” We will be repeating our famous “Gluttons for Punishment” session, where each dancer, after eating an entire fresh-baked blueberry pie, does the Hambo for 5 minutes (with continuous turning). Then they repeat: Pie, Hambo, Pie, Hambo, Pie, Hambo, etc. until there is only one couple left standing. The winners get the Grand Prize: A fresh-baked blueberry pie!

Accommodations – Housing is in rustic cabins with outhouses and spigot not more than ¼ mile away. Down-home country charm is exuded by the authentic 1945-vintage Saggmaster beds. Please don’t bring electrical appliances; if the cabins had electricity, they probably couldn’t handle the load anyway.

Food – Betsy “Finish Your Mock Okra or No Mock Apple Pie For You” Gnarlman will once again be providing fabulous meals. Betsy, who authored the book “365 Ways to Cook with Ritz™ Crackers”, always amazes us with her imagination.

Summary of the Minutes of the NEFFA Executive Board

22 May 2004

Call to Order and President's Report (Maureen Carey)

Dave Reid is recovering from his illness and will sign on to do Tickets for least the next two Festivals.

Welcome to new board members: Kristin Gustafson (Membership), Mark Jones (Parking). Liz Tyler will work with Mari on International and Couple Dance. Linda Wicks will not be running Membership, but would like to stay involved.

Secretary's Report (Laura Leibensperger)

Minutes of Annual Meeting 2004 will be voted on at the 2005 Annual Meeting, not at this meeting.

Election of Board Members. Complete slate was elected. VP: Robert Johnson. Treasurer: Ralph Jones. Nominating Committee: Shelagh Ellman-Pearl, Linda Leslie. Directors: Nancy Hansen, Dan Pearl, Angela Taylor, Dayle Watts.

Festival Committee Reports

Clocks (Rayna Tulesewski): Report presented in pre-meeting package. Michael: Radio-synchronized clocks have come down in price. Dan: We can replace broken clocks as needed with synchronized clocks.

Crafts (Ann Schunior): We had a good year. Demos could be moved to the end booth near the lower hall, but that might block the door.

Evaluations: We got about 300 evaluations out of thousands of attendees, but we base a lot of things on evaluations. Another issue is timing of the Evaluation Report: there’s not enough time for the Program Committee to meet and produce a report before the evaluation meeting.

Folk Bazaar (Angela Taylor): I had two cancellations just before the Festival. Also, Ossian is not doing festivals any more. An evaluation mentioned missing a couple of familiar booths. Some wanted more variety, but there is no duplication, how much variety do they want? Dan: They may mean from year to year. Linda: Watch out for issues of “one response”; we don’t ask people if they love finding items easily in the same place.

Hospitality (Maureen): There was one problem with rudeness toward a vendor and toward Angela. I talked with the person and calmed her down, got things straightened out between her and the vendor. If something like this happens, I should be called in right away – other people shouldn’t take the stress.

Instrument & Costume Check (Laura Leibensperger): Curbside checking would be do-able with good volunteer coverage. I’m also not sure how many people actually need it – I get one or two comments a year. Maybe all we need is to borrow a Hospitality or Safety volunteer to help in specific situations. Most performers seem to have a system worked out – luggage carts, riggings etc.

Membership (Kristin Gustavson): I had no orientation, materials and records were not up to date, and everything about membership had changed! But the experienced volunteers were amazing and things went pretty smoothly. Estimate: 46 individual renewals, 33 family renewals, 21 new individual memberships, and 12 new family memberships. Neffa Bucks distribution to people who didn’t come to the Festival is not clear.

Inside Facilities (Harold Henry): There were 38 evaluations and 6 e-mails with Facilities comments. Bathrooms are an ongoing problem, exacerbated this year by a broken women’s bathroom, the changing area had to be closed as well. We don’t have a woman custodian; we... need a woman volunteer to clear out bathrooms for cleaning. We were short a piano for the Lyric Room – we had to take one from the jamming area. We had an equal number of comments asking for more jamming areas and asking for fewer jamming areas due to sound bleed. There were requests for more and softer mats. There were a lot of comments about poor water pressure and difficulty in filling water bottles at fountains. A person complained about sexist comments made by custodians. Another issue was that the EMT’s only carry a minimal number of cold packs – should we sell them?

Outside Signs (Dayle Watts): We had to buy some signs, but didn’t lose any. We got the usual kind of evaluation comments. Dan: We might want to address taxi-service signage. Also, think about expanding taxi service to cover the West Natick stop, which is serviced by virtually every train on that line - the Natick stop is skipped by several trains. Taxi service saved us about $600.

Parking (Mark Jones): I need more free time to check out dance bands. I’d like to have session supervisors to spread the work around. We could use a Chair, Co-chair and 4 session supervisors. The mud lot near the high school could use attention next year to keep cars from blocking others. Due to town use, the baseball field lot wasn’t as available as we thought it would be. One lot was only half-used on Sunday and could have been opened up.

Performer Sales (Nancy Horn): $8000 was paid out to performers. We sold all but 19 T-shirts. Right now, T-shirt numbers are not tallying correctly. Dan: We gave 12 shirts to bus drivers. Nancy: I’d like to have a better system for tracking sales. Dan: How many different items do you sell? Nancy: 247. Dan: How about a cash register with PLUs. Michael: ie, a computer… Nancy: There’s often more than one sale going on at a time. Dayle: You could have one person on the register. Linda: Nancy got some very nice compliments.

Program. Report shows time devoted to different categories: we increased time on family and beginner events. Got some evaluation comments wanting more workshops.

Tango, West Gallery, some English, Beatles sing-along, dance performances were popular. We had no no-shows.

Printed Materials. We had a lot of grids and Program Books left over. We could reduce number of grids, and reduce number of Program Books by at least 500 – we had 800 to 1000 left over. Harold: Any issues about outside Morris? I purchased a 10x10 canopy for musicians. Michael: I know someone with a tent. Harold: Can you find out dimensions?

Publicity (presented by Maureen for Jessica Holland): We had very good publicity through WUMB. Linda Miller liked the spot that Angela gave her. We’ll have a spot at their festival. One man complained about a lack of publicity in the Globe etc. He was furious that Membership had gone up, because if we got more people we wouldn’t need to do raise rates. But other people complain about overcrowding! We need a new Publicity person, and put thought into publicity. Publicity chairs haven’t always felt supported. Laura: What about looking at ways to fundraise other than increasing Festival attendance.

Safety (presented by Maureen for John Wojtowicz): People were not dancing in Lower Hall overflow; bags should go there. Parking, Safety, and Outside Signs need voice to voice communication. Linda: We should talk with Michael Resnick about signage for bags in Lower Hall; it’s a safety hazard. Dan: It’s not really his issue, he’ll be happy to make signs. Harold: We could designate a bag area, put up shelves etc.

Sound (Peter Olszowska, presented by Michael Bergman): Linda: Saturday night there were 4 dance performance cancellations, adding to Saturday night confusion. Replacements were groups that had not performed at NEFFA before. Confusion points to the need for written job descriptions.

Other Business

2005 Festival Dates (Harold Henry): Our preferred festival dates (to avoid Passover) are already booked by another group. We have our default dates booked as a back-up. I’ll see if I can approach the Higashi School directly. Dan: What about other weekends? Do we have to abut school vacation?

Give and Take (Dan Pearl). We sold 85 copies at the festival. 50 copies were delivered to CDSS, and 20 to FAC for wholesale. Larry took some copies, Mark has some copies. The printer has more copies coming.

TCAN (The Center for the Arts in Natick) Issues (Michael Bergman): NEFFA can take a stand by supporting one party or the other, or by staying neutral. Linda: This seems like a complex politicized issue that would take a lot of time to understand. We already have a lot to think about. Dan: Let’s wait for it to settle down. General consensus: NEFFA should not be involved.

Warsaw Village Band
Concert at MFA

The Museum of Fine Arts Concert Program is delighted to present the Warsaw Village Band on Sunday, September 26 at 3 pm. This concert is sure to delight fans of both traditional European roots music and lovers of bold new sounds.

The Warsaw Village Band are six young musicians who first came together in 1997 and have since dedicated themselves to conserving and experimentally enhancing the traditional folk music of the Warsowia region in the heart of Poland. They refer to their take on it as “hardcore folk” of ‘bio-techno’ and have been compared to Swedish group Hedningarna for their uncompromising acoustic approach. They are the recipients of the 2004 World Music Awards. Don’t miss this rare opportunity to hear them live!

The Warsaw Village Band (Kapela ze wsi Warzsawa) was founded in 1997 by six young musicians who originally just wanted to have fun making spontaneous music together using ancient Polish folk instruments and singing styles. The band’s three singers use the powerful “white voice” singing style originally used by shepherds to communicate over long distances. Instruments played by the ensemble include: violin, cello, suka (a Polish fiddle whose strings are stopped with the player’s fingernails), Polish dulcimer, hurdy-gurdy, and traditional European frame drums.

The band serves both as conservators and innovators of Polish music. The band travels the Polish countryside to make field recordings of folk festivities and village celebrations, studies old manuscripts for source material, and seeks instruction from rural elderly musicians. To this source material, they often add contemporary elements, such as modern instruments, electronic dance elements, and topical lyrics while still preserving its traditional nature.
